Not happy with the game. Its a decent concept. Needs to be smothed out better and more developed. Tutorial is lacking. I'd pay 99 cents for it maybe. I've spent 30 minutes and I'm bored already and somewhat confused.

ALSO! SAVE MY SOUND SETTINGS!

OMFG. I'm watching a show, and get defeated, and then BAM full blast music from the game blasting out. This is enough to make me ask for a refund.

You can actually get stuck on the tutorial. If you researched extra, you won't have enough wood to make. Possibly the most boring top down shooter I've ever played. There are three players ships that all nearly look identical, the weapons are uninspired, and the objectives are go here, survive, then go here.

I returned to this game in an effort to give it one hour of gameplay. It is still very boring, repetitive, and pointless. The only good thing in this back is the background. I also remember that I did not say that there is a bug when starting a level where you cannot move. You will need to exit the level and restart it to regain movement. I absolutely do not recommend this game.

Pros:

Great looking backgrounds.

Cons:

Repetitive Music

LackLuster Level Design

Lack Luster Ship Design

Do you get one Hour of gameplay per $6 paid?: Yes. Game is cheap, you will at least get an hour out of it.

Ease of 100%: Very Easy, No achievements

(100% Being all achievements, Unlocks, Upgrades, Ect.). Movement is incredible slow. Turning is tied to the way your head is facing.

Also the game disables my vives chaperone.. doesnt work anymore, since windows 10 updated. a bit perturbed... Very charming game full of atmosphere and nice little touches, rustling leaves and long swaying grass. Despite the obvious Dark souls influence, things such as Wonderboy in Monster world, Shadow of the beast and Rastan come through. The music is very nice as well and doesnt outstay it's welcome; giving the excellent sfx and sound design time to do there magic.

The developers passion really comes though. If not for the pixels this could be some kind of a watercolor, which I think would have suited it well but the graphics will win you over, trust me, dont underestimate the charm.

I'm not a major fan of the first boss (i left the game a year after my first encounter) but the second one had me on the edge of my seat and was pretty inventive... and then it turns into an open world and there are other islands , wha !! There is easily over 8 hours content.

I have only scratched the surface.. Nice game if you enjoy this sort of thing, really cheap and has cards ++. This game is a true work of art. You know you're getting quality when the person running the server sets your framerate. 9/10 because there is no 10 pack available. One of the best shmups i\u00b4ve ever played <3

This game is a lot of fun, but I will explain why it is, and what some things I wouldn't mind in the future for this game.

- 1) The pixel art style is nice, and nothing is too dark, or saturated by things of the background, and the foreground
- 2) Models look nice, and the characters are all nicely designed
- 3) The variety of enemies is a good touch, and their designs fit the place they're in. Nothing is too over the top with them
- 4) Combat is fun, and has you to learn their patterns, moves, and work up your reflexes
- 5) Sound design is great, and the music fits each place you go to. (For example dark, and rough in the industrial parts, and calm, but mysterious in the ice caves)

Now for things I wouldn't mind seeing (Opinion)

1) Using the other 3 characters, each one has a unique twist, one whose teleportation is a click there, the manes teleportation staying the same, another using a shifting teleportation (teleport their, but only for a limited time)

2) Having the flashlight be a bit more bright because some areas are too dark, more torches, or a better flash light.

3) Work with the menu when it comes to using a mouse. Sometimes I click load game, and it goes to options.

Overall, I highly recommend it, and I hope this game succeeds further into the year.. This is a fun and polished (coop) roguelite platformer, and I have no idea why it is sitting at just 5 Steam reviews.

Edit: it's also really challenging later on. Beware!. This is a pure Asset flip of <https://www.assetstore.unity3d.com/en/#!/content/87301> which comes with full source code. They didn't even bother changing the name.

Zonitron uploaded the exact same game under 3 different names before they got banned by Valve.

All you do here is click in the general direction of enemies. Half of your playtime will come from watching the level switch animations.. I love the game but i dont know how to change guns like from sawed-off to spas. Please help. Very relaxing minimalist game, somewhat platforming, somewhat walking simulator, with beautiful piano music. Took me 41 minutes to complete, and that included checking every space to make sure I didn't miss any orbs. Didn't encounter any bugs, but did notice a few misspellings \("affraid" and "loose" instead of "lose"\) which didn't detract from it. It's not a typical game, as there's really no win/lose, no enemies or serious obstacles, no puzzles, etc. It's just you, walking along, collecting orbs and reading messages, and moving up the levels. It won't be your "I have to play this!" game, but it's a nice, positive way to relax and take a break. Definitely recommended.
