In another application, I used the following to find records in a database for a Phone number. Word The computer program that is used to create documents, such as letters, reports, journals, and so on. About us An OCR for PDF files. Complete

OCR functionality, including page, line and word recognition. A Document ID is added to each document. Ocrad.com is the successor of Abfind.com. Although both offer OCR for PDF files we focus on quality rather than quantity, and try to make the program more stable, user friendly, and correct. PDF to word conversion When converting PDF files to Word (.doc, etc.) we have chosen to only consider text and images in the same PDF file and disregard any metadata present in the PDF file. PDF to.doc - a.doc file extension is an MS-Word (.doc) file and is the common format in which office files are stored. In this case, Ocrad generates the output in this format. PDF to MS. Docx - the same extension is MS Word (.docx) and has the same format. PDF to MS RTF - the format is Microsoft Rich Text Format. Again, we support.docx and.doc files. PDF to TXT - For this kind of file we have not chosen a file extension as the purpose of this extension is not often to store text in a file. PDF to PDF - The format of this file is a PDF file. We have tested this on many pdf files, and found that the
